question of the Inspecting Officers is drawn to Madras Educational Notes, 119 and 124. It is expected that each Deputy Inspector's list will contain at least ten names for each grade. In the case of the rejected candidates, the reasons for rejection should invariably be noted in the list against each name.

7. Teachers employed in local board schools will have to be paid their stipends from the board's own funds. If there is any provision in the local fund or municipal budget under "Stipends to teachers," applications may be obtained from the teachers with consent of the president, school board, or the chairman, municipal council, as the case may be, and submitted with a separate list for each training school and for each grade. In the case of these teachers, clear information should be given in the application regarding the nature of the appointment held by them (Government or acting as the case may be) and whether the presidents of school boards and chairmen of municipal councils are prepared to pay stipends on behalf of the teachers concerned by them.

8. If any applications be received from candidates for training in the whole set of this district, they should be submitted with a separate list.

9. Certificates in original should be submitted with the applications and the Deputy Inspectors should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the information therein.

10. The managers of schools in this district are requested not to overstrain applications for admission into training schools, if they are not sure of overstraining the applicants in their own schools.

11. The lists complete in every respect and the applications should be submitted by the Deputy Inspectors to the office on or before the 15th May 1936.

The Principal hereby notifies that applications regarding admission into this College will be considered in the first 30 days of April and May. Intending candidates or their parents or guardians are requested to peruse these notifications.

In future such requests will not on any account be attended to.

The bond shall be stamped and registered at the expense of the purchaser.

9. On the failure of the appointed bidder to make deposit under clause 7 or to comply with the requirements under clause 8 or to execute and register the necessary agreement by the stipulated time, the deposits already made may be forfeited and the term shall be otherwise disposed of under the orders of the Executive Engineer and the purchaser shall have no right to object any toll from the date of the Executive Engineer's order.

In the latter case the forfeited deposits will be deducted from the loss arising from the result, and the remainder, if any, will be returned from the defaulter. Should the forfeited deposits be greater than the loss by the result, the whole of such deposit will be credited to the Public Works Department. The defaulter bidder will similarly be liable for the privilege or disposed of otherwise than by result and such disposal results to him to the Public Works Department as compared with the original sale.

It will be returned to him on the expiry of his lease after deducting expenses, if any, incurred by the department.

BILL No. 7 of 1929.—The Servalpatti Impartible Estates	193

BILL to be introduced in the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations

Under rule 18 of the Madras Legislative Council Rules, the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons, is published for general information:—

BILL No. 7 OF 1930.

A Bill to declare the Servalpatti Estate to be an impartible estate within the meaning of the Madras Impartible Estates Act II of 1904.

WHEREAS it is expedient to declare that the Servalpatti Estate is an impartible estate and that its proprietor cannot exercise unrestricted powers of alienation in respect thereof, it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called The Servalpatti Impartible Estate Act, 1929.

2. Notwithstanding any decision of court, rule of law or enactment to the contrary, the Servalpatti Estate in the Kovvur and Tiruvallur districts is hereby declared to be an impartible estate within the meaning of the Madras Impartible Estates Act II of 1904 and shall in the hands of the present owner as well as his heirs and successors, be subject to the provisions of that Act.

3. This Act shall not affect any alienation made or debt incurred before the coming into force of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I. The Servalpatti settlement formed part of an ancient and imperishable estate called Elayasinganallur Pollam in the Temporarily District. It was acquired by Sawai Nayakkar I (No. 1 in the pedigree), an ancestor of the present proprietor in 1893. It has been enjoyed by Sawai Nayakkar I and his descendants as an imperishable estate determinable in a single heir according to the law of custom of practitioners applicable to ancient imperishable estates in South India.

II. Sawai Nayakkar I (No. 1 in the pedigree) died in 1895 leaving three sons of whom Sawai Nayakkar II (No. 2 in the pedigree), the eldest, succeeded to the estate. Sawai Nayakkar II (No. 2 in the pedigree) died in 1901 leaving three sons. His eldest son Babha Nayakkar I (No. 3 in the pedigree) was a minor succeeded to the estate. His name was duly registered in the proprietorship of the estate and under the sanction of the Board of Revenue in their capacity as Court of Wards and of the Government, his uncle Perumal Nayakkar was directed to manage the estate during his minority. When Babha Nayakkar I (No. 3 in the pedigree) attained majority, the estate was duly handed over to him in 1904. He died in 1905 leaving three sons the eldest of whom Sawai Nayakkar III (No. 4 in the pedigree) then a minor was duly recognised as heir to the estate. On the recommendation of the Collector, Perumal Nayakkar was again appointed to manage the estate and Venkateswar Nayakkar, the brother of Babha Nayakkar I (No. 3 in the pedigree) was appointed as the guardian of the estate during his minority. On the death of Sawai Nayakkar III (No. 4 in the pedigree) in 1906, still a minor and unmarried, the estate devolved upon his own younger brother Babha Nayakkar II (No. 5 in the pedigree) who was the eldest of his surviving minor brothers. The Court of Wards duly sanctioned the nomination of Babha Nayakkar II (No. 5 in the pedigree) as successor of the deceased and nominated Venkateswar Nayakkar as guardian of the minor and manager of the estate. During the minority of Babha Nayakkar II (No. 5 in the pedigree) the estate was managed by the Government for a period of six months in 1908 owing to the fact that the guardian appointed did not look after his duties properly. At the end of this short period of Government management, another guardian was appointed.

III. In 1906 however, the descendants of the two younger sons of Sawai Nayakkar I (No. 1 in the pedigree) filed a suit for partition of the estate, viz., O.S. No. 31 of 1896 on the file of the Subordinate Judge's Court, Tirunelveli. During the pendency of the suit, Babha Nayakkar II (No. 5 in the pedigree) died in 1907 leaving three sons of whom Babha Nayakkar III, the present proprietor was the eldest. Also an elaborate capacity into the custom of succession to the estate, the Collector duly registered the name of the present proprietor in the register of estates in the proprietorship of the estate in 1907. The suit O.S. No. 31 of 1896 terminated after long delay, in a decree in 1906 whereby the plaintiffs therein duly recognised and had it declared, that the estate and all the properties appertaining thereto was imperishable and devolvable to a single heir according to the law and custom of local primogeniture, that Babba Nayakkar III, the present proprietor, was entitled to succeed to the estate in accordance with the said law and custom.

IV. Heirs and heirs were executed by members of the branch of Rami Nayakkar II (No 2 in the pedigree) in 1888 recognising the imperishability and the custom of succession to and devolution of the estate.

V. Therefore, for over a period of 126 years, at any rate, the estate was recognised by all the members of the family as imperishable and devolvable to a single heir in accordance with the law and custom of local primogeniture.

VI. Another portion of the Esirampattam estate was acquired by the Zamindar of Ettalappuram who incorporated it with his estate and it is now included among the estates included in the schedule to the Madras Imperishable Estates Act II of 1904.

VII. When in 1901 prior to the passing of the Madras<sup>3</sup> Imperishable Estates Act, the present proprietor of the Servalpatti estate applied for the inclusion of it in the list of imperishable estates attached in the Imperishable Estates Bill, the Government replied that the mere non-confirmation of the estate in the schedule to the Bill does not deprive it from the protection of the Bill, if it is in fact imperishable. The imperishable nature of the estate and its descent to a single heir according to the law and custom of primogeniture have been repeatedly recognised by the Government, and by all the members of the family to which the proprietorship of the estate belonged and have also been declared by the Court.

VIII. In order to give legislative recognition to the existing state of things, and with a view to prevent the dismemberment of the estate by alienation or otherwise, and to save the estate from possible future litigation, the present proprietor desires that the Servalpatti estate should be declared an imperishable estate under the Madras Imperishable Estates Act II of 1904.

IX. There are no encumbrances of any kind on the estate. None besides the present proprietor has any rights in or to the estate.

X. The estate yields an annual income of about Rs. 27,000 and pays a pashukh of Rs. 6,475-5-11 including all taxes. The estate has an area of 362 square miles.

XI. The estate falls within the principle of the Madras Imperishable Estates Act II of 1904, and the application of that Act to this estate follows the basis on which Madras Act II of 1918 and Madras Act VII of 1924 were passed.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th February 1929.—

I.A. BILL No. 2 OF 1929.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Bill, 1929.

2. In sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Indian Income-tax Act, Amendment of section 10, 1922, after clause (iii), the following clause shall be inserted, viz. 11 of 1929.

"(iii) any sum paid to an employee as bonus or commission for services rendered, where such sum would not have been payable to him as profit or dividend if it had not been paid as bonus or commission;

Provided that the amount of the bonus or commission is of a reasonable amount with reference to—

- (a) the pay of the employee and the conditions of his service;
- (b) the profits of the business for the year in question; and
- (c) the general practice in similar businesses.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been held by a High Court that bonus, commission or other remuneration paid by an employer to an employee cannot be treated as a business expense and deducted from the employer's income in assessing it to income-tax if the amount of such bonus is dependent on the amount of the profits.

3. At the same time such payments are assessable to income-tax in the hands of the recipient. They are thus liable to double taxation.

4. Under section 44 of the Government of India laws, Officers excepted, such payments from income-tax in the hands of the employee where they cannot legally be deducted in assessing the income of the employer, subject to certain conditions.

5. It has been pointed out, however, that apart from prohibitive such payments, if they represent genuine remuneration of an employee for services rendered, are rightly to be regarded as business expenses, and then the refusal to allow their deduction as such may seem harsh.

6. It is therefore proposed to amend the law so as to permit the deduction of such payments from the employer's income as a business expense. The Bill provides for this amendment with the safeguards necessary to obviate any abuse.

NEW DRAFT, _____
The 7th February 1930. _____ GEORGE SCHUSTER.

"(d) the distribution of work between the official assignee and his deputy or deputies."

6. In section 21 of the Provisional Insolvency Act, 1926, after the word "is adjudged insolvent" the words "as a person presented" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the Bill is to remove certain defects in the Provisional Insolvency Act, 1926, and the Provisional Insolvency Act, 1929, which have been recently brought to notice. The reasons for the several amendments proposed therein are explained in the appended Notes on Clauses.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 4, 5 and 6.—There is no specific provision in the Provisional Insolvency Act, 1926, for the appointment of a deputy official assignee who could discharge all the duties and exercise all the functions of the official assignee. The Insolvency work of the High Courts has increased since 1926 and the necessity of appointing a deputy official assignee has been felt. It is therefore proposed to give power to the Chief Justices of the High Courts to appoint one or more deputy official assignees with the necessary powers.

Clause 5.—It has been held by some of the High Courts that section 16 (2) of the Provisional Insolvency Act does not empower a Judge of the High Court sitting in Insolvency to stay proceedings pending in respect of the same debtor in a Court subject to the superintendence of the High Court under the Provisional Amendment of section 21, Act 11 of 1926.

Amendment of section 112, Act 112 of 1926.

Amendment of section 21, Act 11 of 1926.

RECEIVED BY THE

Insolvency Act. The need for such power has been felt, particularly in Calcutta where a common practice prevails whereby debtors, who have failed to honour their liabilities, make some part of the payment sufficiently ample and get an accommodating creditor to present a petition in insolvency against them in a District Court. This is done with the object of discouraging Calcutta creditors from prosecuting their claims or securing a searching investigation of the debtor's conduct and affairs. The clause gives power to the Judge of a High Court sitting in insolvency to stay or suspend insolvency proceedings pending under the Provincial Insolvency Act in any Court subject to his satisfaction as to the merits of the case. It also empowers him to give necessary directions for the administration of the debtor's estate in the High Court.

Clause 4, Section 55 of the Provincial Insolvency Act has given rise to conflicting judicial decisions as to whether the term "year" for the calculation of the period of two years referred to therein should be the date of the order of sequestration or the date of the presentation of the insolvency petition. The view that the former is correct should be the date of the presentation of the petition is in possession of the policy underlying the Act, and the contrary view leads to an abuse of the provision by dishonest and indigent debtors. The clause gives effect to the former view.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 17th February 1920:—

COUNCIL OF STATE BILL No. 3 OF 1920.

A Bill further to amend the Special Marriage Act, 1912, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Special Marriage Act, 1912, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Special Marriage (Amendment) Act, 1920.

2. In the First Schedule to the Special Marriage Act, 1912 (III of 1912) (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), in the heading of the form of notice of marriage, for the word "Name" the words "Name and father's name" and for the word "Dwelling place" the words "Address as declared" shall be substituted.

3. (1) In the Second Schedule to the said Act, in the form of statement to be made by the bridegroom,—
(a) in the opening line, after the words "A B" the words and letters "son of X Y," shall be inserted; and

(b) in paragraph 3, after the words "My own name," the following words shall be inserted, namely:—

"and my present age is years which is above years."

(D) In the same Schedule, in the form of declaration to be made by the bride, —

(a) in the opening line, after the letters " O D, " the words and letters "<sup>declaration</sup> of M M, " shall be inserted ;

(E) In paragraph B, after the words " fourteen years ", the following words shall be inserted, namely :—

" and my present age is      years which is <sup>thirty</sup><sub>three</sub> twenty-one years " ;

(F) of the words in italics after paragraph 4, the words " unless she is a widow " shall be omitted ; and

(G) in paragraph 5, after the word " verbed " the words " or, I am a widow, " shall be inserted.

(H) In the same Schedule, below the form of declaration to be made by the bride, for the words now headed " (Three witnesses) " the words and brackets " (Three witnesses, with their addresses in full) " shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 2 of the Special Marriage Act, 1912, prescribes the conditions under which marriages can be celebrated under the Act, one of which is that each party must, if he or she has not completed the age of 21 years, have obtained the consent of his or her father or guardian in the marriage. In the form of declaration in the Second Schedule in the Act there is nothing to require the parties to declare their exact ages at the time of marriage. The result is that the Registrar of Marriages cannot enforce the provisions about consent if the parties refrain from filing in paragraph 5 of the declaration. In a recent case in the Calcutta High Court a Bench of that Court have brought to notice the desirability of supplying the omission. The Bill proposes to rectify this defect and to make certain other amendments in the forms, with the object of securing the proper identification of the parties and witnesses.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the Bill is to make some necessary amendments of a formal nature in certain enactments and to amend certain enactments in the interest of the public.

The reasons for the proposed amendments and repeals are explained as follows:—

(1) The Indian Food Cuts Act, 1926.—The amendment is consequential on the insertion of the words "Chapter VI" in section 46 by Act VIII of 1912.

(2) The Punjab University and Decree Act, 1914.—The object is to provide in the form mentioned in section 10 an equal clause for the signature of the contracting parties which are required by that section to be entered therein.

(3) The Indian Limitation Act, 1922.—The amendment is proposed to amend an obvious error introduced into section 20 by Act XXVIII of 1920.

(4) The Indian Finance Act, 1928.—The amendment is partly formal and partly consequential on U.F. Act XII of 1923.

(3) The Indian Education Act, 1907.—The amendment is consequential on the decision that in future the names of Indian States should be styled "Indian States Provinces" instead of "Indian States Provinces".

(4) The Indian Education Act, 1922.—This amendment is consequential on the amendment in Act XXXIX of 1923 of the provisions referred to in article 43 of the First Schedule to Act IX of 1926.

The amendment is purely formal.

(5) (a) The Indian Army Act, 1911

(1) The Indian Frontier Act, 1912.

The amendments are formal only.

(2) The Government of India Act, 1914.—The change is merely grammatical.

(3) The Government of India Act, 1914.—

(a) The amendment of section 22 is designed to supply an obvious omission.

(b) The amendments of sections 120, 125, 127 and 231 are merely grammatical.

(c) An obvious misprint in section 126 is corrected.

(10) (a) The Bengal Police Service (Consolidation of Administration) Act, 1926.

(1) The Child Marriage Prohibition Act, 1929.

The amendments are purely formal.

(11) The Indian Arms Act, 1924.—The repeal is consequential on the repeal of Regulation IX of 1874 by Regulation I of 1926.

(12) The Hyderabad Government Act, 1923.—The provision repealed has its counterpart in sections 26 (1) (2) and 27 (2) of Act XVI of 1927 and has therefore become useless.

(13) The Forest Endowment Act, 1923.—The repeal is consequential on the repeal of section 18 by Act VIII of 1926.

(14) The Petroleum (Customs duty) Act, 1924.—The Act is spent.

(15) The Indian Education Act, 1926.—Sections 22 and 23 and the Second Schedule are obsolescently spent.

(16) The Provincial Endowment Act, 1925.—The repeal is consequential on the repeal of Act VI of 1925 by Act XI of 1929.

(17) The Auxiliary Force Act, 1925.—The repeal is consequential on the repeal of Chapter (2) of section 4 by Act X of 1926.

(18) The Indian Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1922.—Section 2 is already virtually repealed by the repeal of section 45 of Act XI of 1923 by Act XXI of 1927.

(19) The Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 1925.—The Act was virtually repealed by the amendments effected in sections 271 and 272 of the Indian Penal Code by Act XXVI of 1924.

(20) (a) The Indian Forests Act, 1925

(b) The Indian Finance Act, 1927.

(c) The Indian Finance Act, 1927.

The provisions repealed are spent.

(21) The Hyderabad and Amuliyat Act, 1925.—The repealing provisions of the Act are themselves repealed according to current practice in order to abbreviate the Statute book.

New Draft,
The 21st January 1936.

I. GRAMAK.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 17th February 1938:—

COUNCIL OF STATE BILL No. 2 OF 1938.

A Bill further to amend the Prisons Act, 1934, for a certain purpose.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Prisons Act, 1934, in regard to the purpose hereinafter appearing, it is hereby enacted as follows:—

That this Amendment of section 17,
ACT NO. 17
1934,

1. This Act may be called the Prisons (Amendment) Act, 1938.
2. In clause (f) of section 17 of the Prisons Act, 1934, for the words "eighteen" the word "twenty-one" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 17 (f) of the Prisons Act, 1934 (IX of 1934), provides that male prisoners under the age of 18 should be separated altogether from the other prisoners, and that those of them who have arrived at the age of puberty should be separated from those who have not. The effect of this provision is the creation of four distinct groups under the age of 18, as it applies both to undetained and to convicted prisoners. In 1933 the maximum age limit for adolescents was fixed by executive order at 16 and the principle was accepted that arrangements should be made to separate adolescents guilty of grave crimes from other adolescents. The result of these orders was that the group of inmates between puberty and 16 years was divided into two. In 1938 on the recommendation of the second Conference of Inspectors General of Prisons the age limit for an adolescent prisoner was raised to 21 years, resulting in three main groups between the ages of 16 and 21. It has been found impossible in practice to effect the segregation of so many groups of prisoners in each jail and it is therefore proposed that section 17 (f) of the Prisons Act should be amended so as to substitute the word "twenty-one" for the word "eighteen". All prisoners up to the age of 21 will then be treated as one class and referred into the number of groups now provided for prisoners under the age of 18.
